Learn how to live the life you want, not just the life you can afford! Managing your money is like going to the dentist or standing in line at the DMV. Nobody wants to do it, but at some point, it's inevitable: you need to clean your teeth, renew your license, and manage your personal finances like a grown-up. Whether you're struggling to pay off student loan debt, ready to stop living paycheck to paycheck, or have finally accepted that your Beanie Baby collection will never pay off, tackling your finances may seem immensely intimidating. But it doesn't have to be. By approaching personal finance as a game--something that requires you to set clear goals, as well as face challenges you must "beat"--personal finance can not only be easy to understand, but it can also be fun! In Get Money, personal finance expert Kristin Wong shows you the exact steps to getting more money in your pocket without letting it rule your life. Through a series of challenges designed to boost your personal finance I.Q., interviews with other leading financial experts, and exercises tailored to help you achieve even your biggest goals, you'll learn valuable skills such as: Building a budget that (gasp) actually works Super-charging a debt payoff plan How to strategically hack your credit score Negotiating like a shark (or at least a piranha) Side-hustling to speed up your money goals Starting a lazy investment portfolio...and many more! Simply put, with this gamified guide to personal finance, you'll no longer stress about understanding how your finances work--you'll finally "get" money.

Felix Dennis is one of Britain's wealthiest self-made entrepreneurs with an estimated fortune of £500 million. And he didn't get there simply by reading about how to get rich. He went out and did it. Appreciating that those intent on becoming rich will not have the time or inclination to read page upon page of guidance and advice on the subject, Felix Dennis has reduced his own business wisdom to 88 tenets of wealth-generation, all written in his inimitable style. How to Make Money is for those determined to get rich, for those who will not confuse reading with doing, for those who seek the narrow road. (First published in hardback as 88 The Narrow Road.)

When has whining about the supposedly unavoidable circumstances that led to your great debt ever paid down your principle? Has complaining about how taxes and Social Security have kept you from building up any kind of decent savings account ever increased your quarterly statements? We are living a huge economic and financial crisis, the worst that humanity has ever experienced. Some may say that the American crisis of 1929 was much harsher and more dramatic, but it was confined to the United States, while the present one includes the whole world, from the East to the West. As a member of the Fondazione Discepolo (a cultural institution founded by my father, Pasquale Discepolo, an engineer, born in New York on 6 November 1917, which has two executive and / or parallel "extensions": the Museo Mineralogico Campano [Mineralogical Museum of the Campania Region] and the Premio Capo d'Orlando [Capo d'Orlando Prize], founded by Dr. Umberto Celentano), on 23 May 2011, I had the great honour of participating in an extremely interesting conference held by the Nobel Prize for Economy Paul Krugman, who had been invited and awarded a prize by the Fondazione Discepolo at Vico Equense (a nice little city near Napoli and Sorrento). Paul Krugman's conference was of extraordinary interest, and touched upon the themes that were the premise for me writing this book in which I offer my almost 43 years of experience on the topic of money. In this book, I also wish to offer some advice to improve one's financial situation as concerns both the family and/or the individual.
