This is a brief exploration of running records, explaining why to use them, how they relate to teaching, and how to administer them.

Fountas & Pinnell take you through every aspect of leveled books from how to select and use them for different instructional purposes to prototype descriptions for fiction and nonfiction books at each level.

Gives middle school teachers a range of tools to help monitor literacy behavior continuously as they teach, as well as conduct periodic assessments for accountability. Intended to guide teachers' ongoing observations of student's progress within a literature-based reading program.

Now on DVD for the first time, An Observation Survey of Early Literacy Achievement is the video companion to Marie Clay's book of the same name. The DVD shows you two different demonstrations of the six observation tasks in the Observation Survey, Second Edition: Running Records Letter Identification Concepts About Print Word Test Writing Vocabulary Hearing and Recording Sounds in Words. Watch the DVD of An Observation Survey of Early Literacy Achievement and see a key aspect of the Reading Recovery program in action.
