Writing Places: The Life Journey of a Writer and Teacher ... Because Writing Places, like his other books about writing and his life, has been mercilessly edited and honed to absolute shining perfection. I despair at ever coming close to this kind of writing myself. And I am an adherent to Zinsser's work too. I first read his classic tome, On Writing Well, about five years ago and just loved it.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Writing Places: The Life ... And, of course, his writing skills result in books that are engaging, memorable and bring the reader to reflect on not only Zinsser's subjects but on the reader's own life. In Writing Places, Zinsser takes us through his personal journey
